

IMI 2 Info Day - October 22, 2014 – Zagreb, Croatia
University of Zagreb School of Medicine, Šalata 3
Congress Hall Čačković, 15:00

EU Innovative Medicines Initiative 2: The right prevention and treatment to the right patient at the right time - Medical Research Opportunities for Croatia

Organized by:
Institut Ruđer Bošković (IRB)
Innovative Medicines Initiative (IMI)
Inovativna farmaceutska inicijativa (IFI)

Agenda

15:00 – 15:45 Welcome and opening remark

Davor Miličić, Dean, Faculty of Medicine
Marin Roje, State Representative, IMI
Sani Pogorilić, CEO, Association of Innovative Pharmaceutical Industries (IFI)

- Role and mission of IMI
Marin Roje, State Representative, IMI

15:45 – 17:00 Session 1: IMI - what projects and how to get involved?

- What is it? How does it work? What did it achieve? Who should apply?
Hugh Lavery, Senior Scientific Project Manager, IMI
- IMI T1DM Call Topic Text: Translational approaches to disease modifying therapy of T1DM
Bernd Jablonka, R&D Diabetes Division, Alliance Coordination, Sanofi
- IMI Retinal Diseases Call Topic Text: Discovery and validation of novel endpoints in retinal diseases
Hugh Lavery, Senior Scientific Project Manager, IMI

17.00 – 17:15 Networking coffee

17:15 – 17:45 Session 2: Application – Practical Guide

- How to apply and increase chances for participation? What are rules for participation and for intellectual property protection?
Magali Poinot, Legal Manager, IMI
- Practical advice and Q&A session

17:45 Conclusions and next steps

Marin Roje, State Representative, IMI